

DR. MILLWAINE MAKES REPORT

New Librarian Submits Account of Brief Stewardship to Board.

SAYS FORCE IS INADEQUATE

Should Have Enough to Complete Catalogue at Once for Public Good.

At its semi-annual meeting, which, on account of an accumulation of business, was long-drawn-out, the State Library Board last night adopted the annual report of Librarian Millwaime and passed a number of resolutions of more or less public interest. All the members were present, and the meeting was perfectly harmonious. At the instance of Governor Swanson, Mr. Pendleton offered a resolution, which was unanimously adopted, tendering the library the set of engraved resolutions, passed by the recent Episcopal Convention, thanking the Governor for the courtesies extended by him to the body. A resolution was adopted thanking the Governor for his gift. The board adopted a resolution declining to accept any of the five proposals of the late Dr. Walter Reed, submitted by various artists for inspection and approval.

Interesting Report.
The report of Dr. Millwaime, which covers about twenty-five pages of typewritten matter, treats every phase of this library work, and is a paper of considerable statistical interest. The Librarian deals at length with the importance of extending the cataloguing system, the need of proper cases for manuscript books, and explains the work that is going on in the traveling library department.

Under the head of "Growth of the Library," he points out that 1,817 books have been added to the collection during the year. A financial statement which is appended shows the fiscal operations of the institution, and all the assistants and employees are commended for their faithful work.

In commenting on the fact that the library is kept open late during certain months of the year, and that the department is in every way being expanded, the report says:

"In view of all this it ought readily to be seen that the library staff, far from being overworked, is in fact in the absence of a catalogue, incapable of rendering the efficient service that the people expect."

The report explains that it will be necessary to call upon the General Assembly to make an additional appropriation for carrying on the work of publishing the Journals of the House of Burgesses.

Of Great Importance.
In speaking of the next volume, the report says:

"This series is of the greatest interest and importance. Its publication has been hailed with enthusiasm by all students of history who have seen copies of it. No cessation of the work should for a moment be thought of. The people of Virginia, claiming that Virginia has been the leader, both as a State and as a Colony, in marking history on the American continent, are sometimes offended because the part played by her is not properly set forth in printed history. But in what respect is this feeling appropriate, seeing that we have ourselves done so little toward preserving the documentary evidences of the performances of our ancestors, and have done even less toward rendering those preserved available? The thoughtful among us should not rest content till every possible scrap of matter of historical value is published to the world. I therefore urge that the General Assembly be asked for an appropriation of $5,000 a year for carrying on the work. This amount, added to the sum which I think can be counted on from the sale of the Journals, will provide for the publication of two volumes a year."

Public Should Pay.

In treating the matter of requests for Revolutionary War records, which the Librarian declares are coming in at a rapid rate, his report says:

"I should advocate the charge of a fee of $2 for copying out for the person interested in the record desired. The people making the requests are usually—possibly always—able to pay such a fee, and it seems to me but just that they should be required to pay it. The sums coming to the library might be each month turned over to the Treasurer of the State, to be placed to the credit of the Library fund."

BAPTIST WOMEN'S WORK.

Five Reports Made to the Union in Charlottesville—Meet Here Next.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., November 9.—The Women's Missionary Union of the Baptist Church, convening here, is largely attended, and full of enthusiasm. About 200 delegates and officers are present; the session lasts from 9:30 A. M. to 5 P. M., with one hour and a half for luncheon, abundantly served to all in the church.

The president, Mrs. Thomas P. Bigby, of West Point, declined re-election, and the first day Mrs. J. S. James, of Richmond, treasurer, also resigned, much to the regret of the body. Both of these ladies have been urged to reconsider, but they are very emphatic as to resignation.

Dr. B. D. Gray, secretary of the home mission board, and wife, of Atlanta, have been prevented from attending and addressing the convention by illness in the family. Dr. J. C. Moss will address the mass-meeting on home missions Sunday night. Rev. W. S. Leake will talk on "Prayers for the Night," and Dr. Smith, of the foreign mission board, will also address the meeting. Charlottesville is entertaining the

Saved From Threatened Catarrh of the Lungs By Taking Pe-ru-na.

Mrs. Mary Mag, rear 6004 Beller Street, E. Pittsburg, Pa., writes:
"Last spring I had a very severe cold which settled on my lungs. I went to the doctor for some time, but his medicine did me no good.
"Having read in the paper some testimonials of the value of Peruna, I decided to try it, and at the same time wrote to Dr. Hartman for advice. I took a box of Peruna and am now entirely cured.
"Before taking Peruna I was so run down that I could do no work and could not stand on my feet. My head ached and I could not sleep—I would wake up and cough. In the morning, on rising, I would cough for at least ten minutes. I was alarmed.
"But thanks to Peruna, I am now enjoying good health. I would not be without Peruna. I keep it in the house and give it to my little boy when he has a cold."

NEGLECTED cold is generally the first cause of catarrh. Women are especially liable to colds. These colds occur more frequently during the wet, sloppy weather of winter and spring than any other time of the year. Often they are not considered serious and so are allowed to run on, or they are treated in such a way as to only palliate the symptoms, while the cold becomes more deep-seated and the patient finally awakens to the fact that she has a well-developed case of catarrh.

By reason of their delicate structure the lungs are frequently the seat of a cold, especially if there is the slightest weakness of these organs. The treatment of catarrh of the lungs is also more difficult and discouraging than catarrh of any other organ of the body.

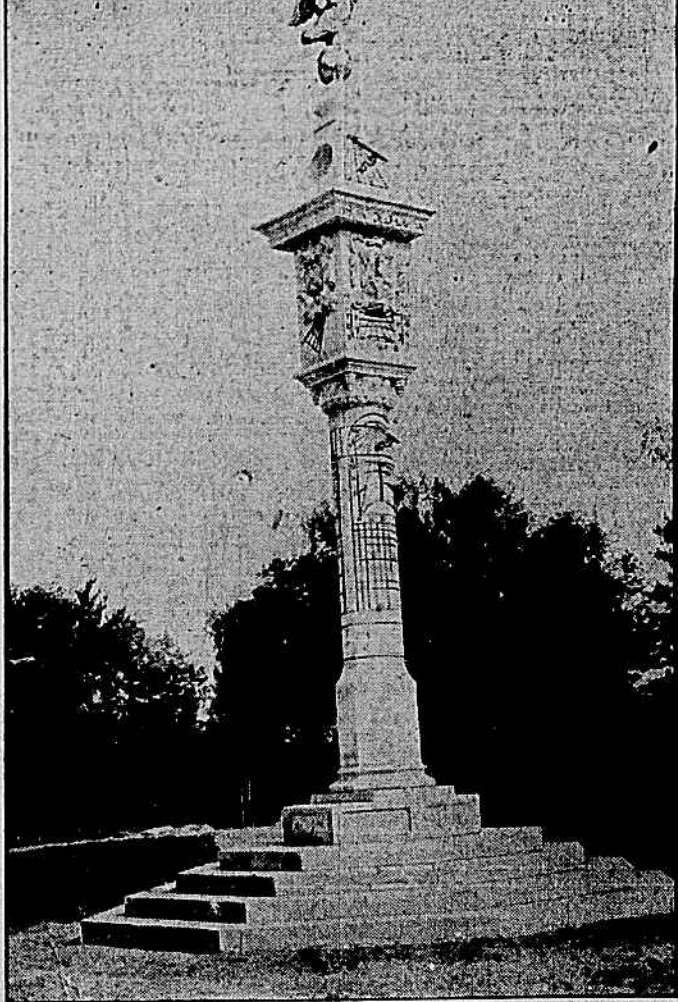

It would be wise, therefore, to guard against it by every precaution possible. Peruna has been found a most reliable remedy for coughs, colds and catarrh by reason of the fact that it goes at once to the very seat of the trouble. It searches out every crevice, every duct of the body. It quickens and equalizes the circulation of the blood, thus relieving the congested mucous membranes. It exercises a healing and soothing effect upon the mucous membranes, no matter whether they are the more exposed membranes of the head and throat, or whether they line the remotest cells of the lungs.

PERUNA TABLETS can now be obtained by those who prefer solid medicine.

PURSUED YOUNG LADY.

Negroes Charged With Attempted Assault in New Kent.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NEW KENT COURTHOUSE, Va., November 9.—Buck Waller and Buck Archer, negro men, are locked up in the New Kent jail charged with attempted criminal assault upon Miss Gertrude Warring. They were arrested last night.

Miss Warring, a young lady, in charge of a school near Taylorsville, was on her way home yesterday evening, when the two negroes, who were lurking in the woods nearby, sprang into the road and chased her until they were in sight of persons, husking corn in a field nearby. The men then ran off, but were captured late last night by the sheriff.

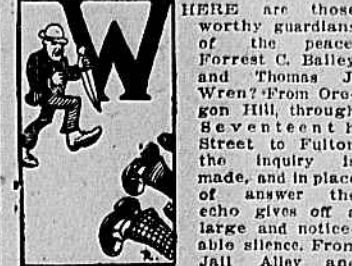

Miss Warring had always carried a pistol with her, but being so frightened she did not think to use it. Miss Warring is from King William county, and has taught school near Taylorsville several seasons. A small boy accompanied the teacher.

Pleased With Dr. Hill.
BERLIN, Nov. 9.—The announcement at Washington yesterday by Secretary of State Root that David Jayne Hill, American minister to the Netherlands, and ex-assistant secretary of state, would be named as ambassador to Berlin in succession to Chamblaine Tower, who is about to retire on account of ill health, was received sympathetically at the foreign office here.

NO WORD YET FROM BAILEY AND WREN

City Police See Visions of What May Be Happening to Richmond's in England.

EVERYBODY WANTS TO KNOW

HERE are those worthy guardians of the peace, Forrest C. Bailey and Thomas J. Wren? From Oregon Hill, through Seventeenth Street to Fulton, the inquiry is made, and in place of answer the echo gives off a large and noticeable silence. From Jail Alley and to the reputation of being the Bowery of Richmond, the faces of the genial detectives are missing. No longer is there any fun in snatching a lady's purse and running down a dark alley. No more is there an element of sport in climbing into a second-story window by night. The sleuths are not on the job. The excitement is missing.

Did Miller shove them overboard?

The disappointed criminal, failing to secure the fierce joy of the chase for which his system craves, or to get his picture in the paper, coupled with that of the worthy officer who so ably handled the case, sits sullenly down in dejection and awaits their return.

Where Are They?

And truly—where are they? Chief Werner smiles a genial German smile and says nothing. Captain Tomlinson looks wise, even as though he knew it all, and says less.

Lost in London together.

Since then no word has been received from the star members of Richmond's force, and the sporting fraternity are becoming uneasy. For eight days there have been speculations as to their whereabouts. Did Miller really escape and steal their baggage at Liverpool, as somebody said he would?

Around detective headquarters last night there was a rumor that Tom Wren had gotten mixed up with the shades of an ancestor named Christopher, who hangs about London, and that Bailey had tried to carry off the Old Bailey as a family heirloom, with the possibility that both had gotten sixty days for violating the emigration laws, or else had been listed as undesirable citizens. Tom McMahon, who isn't a bit jealous of their "London" trip, says that the two started out last Sunday evening to visit White-chapel, and they haven't been seen since. Captain Whitlock says this isn't true at all; that both of them are loading up and down Baker Street in the hope of meeting Sherlock Holmes

In the upstairs room at First Station it has all been thrashed out over a game of dominoes and settled that the officers went to Edinburgh or Glasgow in their search for Scotland Yard, and have not yet discovered a clue as to its whereabouts.

"The force will never admit for a minute that the wealthy friends of the much-wanted Miller have so far gone against it. I hunted up the game as to put a knife in their backs or else to

MAN TORTURED FOR 33 YEARS.

Suffered From Disease of the Skin, But Found a Cure at Last.

A story written in the own words of the sufferer has just come from Covington, Ohio, which has caused a big stir among skin specialists and among those suffering from Eczema and other forms of skin diseases. George Plummer, of that city, an old and honored resident, suffered from Eczema for thirty-three years before he was able to find a cure, and was then saved from further suffering by D. D. D. Prescription. Here is what he says about it:

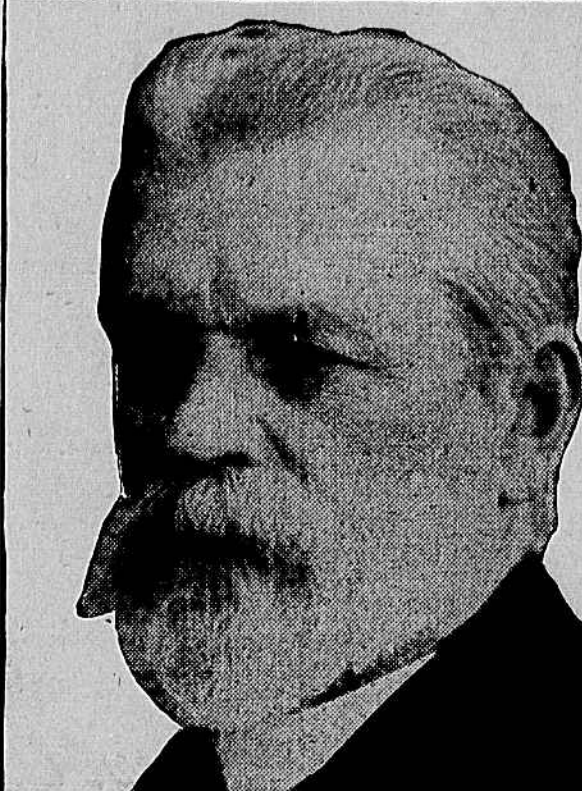

"I had Eczema for thirty-three years, and two bottles of D. D. D. Prescription completely cured me. I can hardly believe it myself, but it is the gospel truth. As soon as I found out what D. D. D. was, I hunted up two of my best friends, Mr. Shuman and Mr. Rank, both of whom had Eczema. Both of them are nearly cured, and Mr. Rank has used only seven bottles. It is a wonderful remedy."

"D. D. D. Prescription is a liquid remedy, which gets right at the roots of such diseases as eczema, psoriasis, salt rheum, barbers' itch, etc. It doctors the skin where the skin needs to be doctored. It kills the germs and the itching scales fall off, leaving the skin fine and white."

We know that this remedy is absolutely reliable and that it has cured eczema, and the patients appear to be cured forever. Come in and let us give you a booklet on detecting itching and other skin diseases. This is what you are suffering from skin disease.

IN MEMORIAM

DEKRAFFT.—Mr. CHARLES E. DEKRAFFT departed this life at Amelia Courthouse, on November 5, 1907, aged twenty-eight years.

He had been in ill health for several months, and at times his mind would err, and he seemed to be so much improved that it gave hope and cheer to his loved ones and friends, but for the past few weeks it had been so that his days were numbered, and that he would soon be called from the scenes of this life to the mansions above. His death was sudden and unexpected. He was a devoted and affectionate husband, a high sense of honor, true and loyal, and a man of fine character and noble disposition.

He leaves a wife, Mrs. Mildred DeKrafft, and a father, Mr. W. DeKrafft, Esq., besides several brothers and sisters, all of whom have the sympathy of their many friends in their distress and affliction. He was buried in the Presbyterian Cemetery at this place, the burial service being conducted by his pastor, Rev. V. W. Wren, pastor of Raleigh parish.

A silver offering will be taken at the door.

Watches Need a Rest.
"Watches get tired out just the same as people," said a methodical man who worries if his timepiece isn't right up to scratch.

"Every little while my watch would stop running with its usual regularity and lose about half an hour in a day. I took it to the jeweler once or twice, but it still had these spells. One day I found out accidentally that it was just right. If I lay it away somewhere for a day or two when it gets one of those losing fits and then wind it up again, it will keep perfect time. All it seems to need is a little rest."
